Gave Dance Recital

The pupils of Mrs. Virginia Maskiel who has conducted dancing classes during the winter season for our young people, gave a recital in the Town Hall to parents and friends last Friday evening. There was a large attendance and all enjoyed the 32 events on the program. The hall was beautifully decorated.

Mrs. Ruth Stratton presided at the piano and in the late evening ball room dancing was enjoyed by all to the music of the Ramblers of Greenfield. Practically all members of the various classes had a part in the program and they acquitted themselves with much credit. Possibly a hundred of the young folks had a part in the recital.

At the meeting of the local WCTU held at the home of Mrs. Philip Porter Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. Grace C. Cornell and Mrs. Clara Alexander spoke of their experiences during the winter in St. Petersburg, Florida. They referred frequently to their attendance at large WCTU gatherings.

Alumnae Hold Reunion

On the campus of Mount Hermon School Saturday, May 17, about a hundred graduates of the Northfield School for Girls from Worcester, Springfield and Franklin County towns gathered for a picnic and group meetings. The pleasant weather made for a successful session and a most interesting program was arranged. A committee consisting of Mrs. Lester P. White, Mrs. Axel Forslund and Mrs. Alfred Petschke acted as hostess and turned the affair into a big family reunion.

Headmaster Rubendahl welcomed all to Mount Hermon, Mr. White conducted the guests on tour and an organ recital by Mr. L'Hommedieu was much appreciated. Many visited about Northfield the friends of former years and made a pilgrimage to the School for Girls where they were entertained with a program.

Expect Church Plans

The building committee of the Congregational Church expect to receive soon some tentative sketches for the new church through the courtesy of a qualified architect and as soon as they arrive they will be shown to members of the congregation. Contributions and subscriptions to the building fund are gradually being made and it is hoped that the entire amount will be secured within the five-year period. It has been suggested that memorial gifts might be made, such as providing for an organ, and other equipment necessary in a modern and up-to-date edifice.

Sister Installed Head

Dr. Rosemary Park, sister of Dr. William E. Park, president of the Northfield Schools, was installed as president of Connecticut College at New London, Conn., on Saturday, May 17, and becomes the fifth president and the third woman president of the women's college. Representatives of 175 institutions of learning attended the inaugural ceremony in the Palmer Auditorium including her father, Dr. J. Edgar Park, president emeritus of Wheaton College in Norton, Mass., and a frequent visitor to the Northfield schools. Dr. Park succeeds Dr. Katherine Blunt, the former president who retired last June.

Dr. Park was welcomed to the ranks of college presidents by Dr. Herbert Davis, president of Smith College, who said that the particular function of a college is the discovery and development of diversities of gifts among students.

"In the perplexities and divisions that beset us and threaten our peace, we need every kind of excellence and every promise of genius."

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Daggett and family who have been in Massachusetts since last June, will return to Hawaii in July where Mr. Daggett will resume his teaching at Punahou School in Honolulu. During the past season he was a year's exchange teacher at St. Marks School in Southboro, Mass.

Activity in the real estate market here is falling off and prizes have declined from previous levels. Offerings of building lots have found no takers.

Bridge Assured Towns

With the announcement that bids for construction of the Montague City bridge will be requested on May 24th and assurance from District Engineer C. B. Raymond that the bridge will be built speedily there is a feeling of satisfaction to Turners Falls and Greenfield as well as to all surrounding towns. The rebuilding of the bridge will be appreciated by motorists from Northfield and vicinity who prefer the short cut to Deerfield and places southward and thus avoid the traffic congestion via the Greenfield routes.

No date has been named for the completion of the work but it will take considerable time. The new bridge will take the place of the old covered bridge which went down in flood of March 1936. Since then the demand for replacement was kept to the fore and now with realization at hand all communities will rejoice.

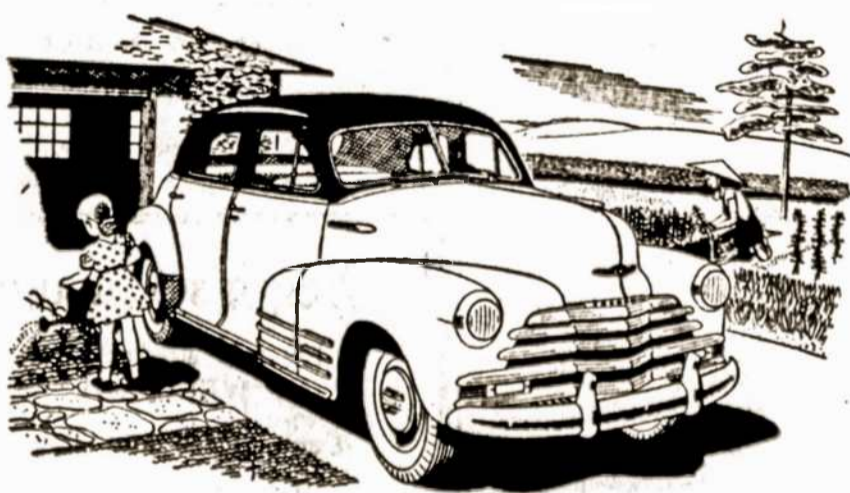

Another Genealogy

Having concluded her work on the genealogy of the Lawrence family of New Jersey, the first edition has been issued and found a place in the shelves of Public Libraries and institutions specializing in genealogy. Now Miss Ethel V. Lawrence of East Northfield assumes a new task and delves into the facts concerning the Tripp family, who early settled in Rhode Island and whose members found their way to Vermont and to New York State settling in the Mohawk Valley. Miss Lawrence is a recognized genealogist by the national organization and her work has been most favorably commented upon.

The service of installation for the Cabinet of the Northfield School Church will be held at 4:30 p. m. Sunday afternoon. It is reported that Charles L. Gilbert of the Farms is ill at his home and under the care of a physician.

The local Salvation Army committee is hoping that all who have received letters of appeal will reply promptly in order to complete the canvass within the allotted time. Contributions will be welcomed from all citizens even if overlooked in the mail. Contributions may be left with Ross L. Spencer at his office of Spencer Brothers on Main Street.

Rich Uncle: "Sorry you don't like your birthday gift, but I did ask you if you preferred large or small checks, I believe."

Nephew: "Yes, but I didn't know you were talking about neckties."

Fussy Old Lady: "Conductor, does this train stop at Union Station?"

Harassed Conductor: "Lady, there'll be the darnedest wreck you ever saw if it doesn't."

Woman Customer (after the tired clerk had pulled down blanket after blanket until there was only one left on the shelf): "I don't really want to buy a blanket today. I was only looking for a friend."

Clerk: "If you think she's in the other one, madam, I'll gladly take it down for you."

"Here, Auntie," said the returned soldier, "is a franc I brought you from Paris as a souvenir."

"Thank you," said the dear old lady, "but I wish you would have brought me one of those Latin quarters I read so much about."
